AI'13 Call for Tutorials

The AI'13 conference committee invites proposals for the tutorial programme to be held on Tuesday 3 Dec 2013 immediately prior to the main technical programme of the AI'13 (4-6 December 2013).

The tutorials aim at providing conference attendees with an introduction to current research in a specific area of artificial intelligence. Tutorial topics include, but are not restricted to, the following topics listed at: http://ai2013.otago.ac.nz/call-for-papers/.

Important Dates

Proposal submission deadline	01 July 2013
Proposal acceptance notification	19 Aug 2013
Deadline for posting the tutorial call for participation	26 Aug 2013
Provisional attendees list	07 Oct 2013
Final list of attendees	04 Nov 2013

Requirements for Tutorial Proposal (2 pages)

The first page should contain the following information:

- Concise title, abstract of the tutorial and tentative contents in syllabus-like form
- Proposed duration (i.e. half day = 3 hours or full day = 2 x 3 hours)
- Intended audience and prerequisite knowledge: what the attendees should already know

The second page on background information on the presenter(s) should contain:

- Names, affiliations, homepages, contact details and short biographies of presenter(s)
- Information about previous tutorials (title, location, number of attendees, etc.) if any
- Tutorial materials such as handouts or slides should be included if already available, but are not required for submission.

All proposals should be submitted by the deadline, via e-mail, to the AI'13 tutorial chair:

The selection of tutorials to be included in the final AI '13 programme will be based upon: scientific/technical interest of the topics, the quality of the proposal, balance of topics, and the capacity of the conference tutorial program. Authors of proposals addressing similar and/or overlapping content areas and/or audiences may be requested to merge their proposals.

Responsibilities of AI'13

For successful proposals, AI'13 will be responsible for the followings:

- Providing publicity for the tutorial series as a whole
- Providing logistic support and a meeting place for the tutorial
- AI'13 reserves the right to cancel any tutorial if too few attendees register for the tutorial to support its running costs.
